

Senior Reception

The Juniors were entertained by their wiser schoolmates at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Murray, on Thursday evening, February 20.

The program that had been prepared proved very entertaining. It opened with some good songs by the Whang-Doodle quartette, composed of Harry Eger, John Morgan, Emmet LaRue and Mel Haas. Miss Alice Shedd sang two solos, Miss Martha Long also sang. A chorus of boys and girls also sang several songs.. The chief entertainment of the evening was furnished by P. B. Trone, of Indianapolis, an impersonator, who delighted the members of both classes. The refreshments consisted of marshmellow ice and cake.

Everyone, including C. R. Dean and C. M. Sharp, had two helpings of ice and went home rejoicing.
